Father John's Corner

Last Sunday at mass, I made the announcement that I was asked to transfer to St. Joseph in Downers Grove. It was a surprise call from the bishop that caught me off guard. Although, I did not like the decision, as priests, we promised to obey our bishop. And this was a time I was exercising that promise for the need of the church.

Bishop Conlon has appointed Father Thomas Theneth, CMI as our new pastor. My last day here will be June 16, and Father Thomas will be here June 19.

Please pray for all priests who are moving around this year.
